The Republican senatorial caucus on Friday adjourned until Friday next, pending an agreement on the subject of Cuban relief. The sold license was devoted entirely to the Cuban cause. While a number of the Administration Senators are to yield in favor of fighting out the bill on the floor of the senate, a probable majority is likely to refer to postpone legislation until the necessary votes are secured from the Republican members.

They will then turn to England and for substantial business.

The bill, if passed, will give Bishop O'Brien, of the Catholic diocese of New York, jurisdiction over the territory of the state of New York, and the major portion of the state, which is valued at $100,000,000. The estate may pay him $50,000.

According to a report filed by Maj. J. H. Mansir in the office of the Adjutant General, the gallant regiments intrusted to Battery B, Lexington, are in bad condition and some of the officers have been negligent. It is also probable that the reorganization movement will extend to Artillery A, of Louisville.

200 Italian laborers went up Big Sandy Wednesday to work on the construction of the extension of the C. & O. from Whitehouse to Virginia. It is said that negroes and Italians will be used to do most of the labor on the new road. The work is now in full blast and business will boom up Sandy from this forward.

Death of a Little Child.

The spirit little Morton Freese, only child of Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Watson, and only grandchild of Capt. and Mrs. F. E. Freese, peacefully took his flight Wednesday night at ten o'clock, after an illness of two weeks of cerebro-spinal meningitis. His recovery had been despaired of several days before the end came, but as the life sparks lingered and again, only to be beaten broken.

Throughout the long and trying vigli, this entire community has kept watch with the stricken family, anxiously hoping that the little one would be spared to his fond parents and doting relatives.

He was an unusually bright infant, the boy, twenty-three months of age, the idol of his parents and grandparents, and his death is a great blow to the family.

He will be buried this (Friday) morning, at ten o'clock, with services at the residence of his grandfather, F. E. Freese, conducted by Rev. Botard.

Mrs. Watson has not yet recovered from her severe illness; and Dr.
Watson's father and sister are both critically ill. Mr. Watson is therefore in a most trying place, and the greatest sympathy is felt for him by everyone.

A GANG OF ROBBERS.

The Rockskin Bill Wild West aggregation, which showed here last week, was the worst lot that ever struck this section. Thieves and robbers filled the publican every hour. All sorts of gambling games and fake schemes were run wide open, and it is surprising that almost the whole outfit was not left under arrest.

W. B. Salyer, a lumberman from near Flat Gap, was decoyed into a sideshow tent after the main show was over, under pretense of letting him into an electric belt scheme.
Wm. Dwyer, who pretended to be a special policeman employed by the show, was the man who victimized Salyer. The men went into a booth or "coot" made for this purpose.
Each was put up $1 in cash to fill the den. Dwyer counted out $40 and Salyer called a roll-out of his pocket containing $8. Dwyer snatched all the money and escaped under the side of the tent. Three men known as "go-betweens" stepped in front of Salyer and prevented him from pursuing the robber.
They turned him out at the regular entrance. By this time Dwyer had made good his escape down the railroad. Dwyer boarded the train that night at mouth of Blaine, seven miles below here.

A man connected with the side show was arrested as an accomplice, but could not be identified.

Salyer followed the show to Huntington, riding through the country that night. He told Dwyer arrested and recovered the money, at a cost of about $25.

Squire Hutchinson, of Waynetown, W. Va., was taken out of Ashland and recovered $250.
Money for getting out an attachment for the show in this place.

Several people suffered from the "short change" game.

The shawerlaid a way from here a little over $100 from the large crowd present. The performance was very poor. Salyer was charged here, and 25 at Ashland.

An employee who was too decent to remain with them, quit at Huntington.
He said he was afraid they would lay some claim on him because he was not in with the gang; or would "red light" him —which means to hurt him from the train at night while running at full speed.

The man told that Dwyer was the "fixer" for the show. That is, it was his duty to see all the officers and policemen of a town and "fix" all who could be influenced with money or otherwise so that the "graffers" and "hoosiers" under their control would be safe in their work. The show is to get 25 per cent of all these men can steal.

As stated last week four men from this show were arrested at Ashland and taken back to Vanceburg for kidnaping a 15-year-old country girl and badly abusing her.
Only one was held, and the others were released.

Big Sandy Girl Wins.

We are very much pleased to hear that Jean, the bright young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mc-Clure, natives of Louisa, has been awarded the gold medal in elocution at Loretto Academy in Santa Fe, New Mexico, for the term just closed. Our readers will doubtless

THEY CRUSH THE POWERS

This is written in mid-October. The long, oppressive summer is quite gone. Fading leaves, withering tree and the rustling corn in the fields are signs of the season. Fog, frost, rain, snow—they are common and remembered last winter of 1898 and 1899. This is the beginning. Ah! the thousand and it killed, and the hundreds of thousands it maimed and crippled. Oh, the rough grass it laid on men, work, women at home, and children in era and seasons. Coughs that beat the heart, rheumatism, Day after day, aching and tearing them still; and growing worse as they dig deeper into the poor, tired throat and lungs. Many were cured by using Benson's Plaster. For the soothing and healing power of these Plasters is wonderful. They conquer the complaints.

THAT ARE KILLING THE PEOPLE.

No other plaster, no other medicine or application, can compare with them. Coughs, colds, rheumatism, rheumatism, kidney and liver troubles, asthma, influenza—they all go down before Benson's Plasters. His new Plaster is in the market now. You can now buy away at a Benson's Plaster. Everybody is going to use them this season. But make certain you get the genuine. All druggists, or we will pay postage on any number ordered in the United States on receipt of 25¢ each.

Big Sale of Funeral. Teachers' Institute. Masons Celebrate. Death of Wm. Sword.

J. M. Stalton and Jas. Goff recently made a sale of something near 30 thousand acres of mineral. They had taken options from the people some time since at a much higher price per acre than others who had taken options; so that so far as this sale includes the people will receive a far better price than others who have sold to other companies.

There were 35 applicants in the Teachers' examination Friday and Saturday. There is quite a contest over many of the schools in this country.

Mr. Bowles, a young minister from Barboursville College, has come here to preach for the M.E. Church, South, for the remainder of the year. He seems to be very intelligent and deeply in earnest. We trust he will be able to do much good. There is much need here for a religious awakening. The anticipated business boom seems to be causing many people to neglect the one great business of this life—that of preparing for the next.

Farmers from every direction report that their crops are doing well.
